Scholarships & Grants

There are a number of resources beyond financial aid to help study abroad related costs.

- Every year the College awards approximately 100 Summer International Travel Grants (study-abroad.uchicago.edu/sitg) to support outstanding undergraduates for intensive language study or research abroad.
- The Center for Scholarly Advancement website (ccsa.uchicago.edu) provides a database of various forms of funding specific to study abroad, such as the Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship, the Ana Julie Calderwood Scholarship Fund, the Critical Languages Scholarships, the Boren Scholarship, and many more.

Study Abroad Scholarships for Odyssey Scholars

A limited number of awards of up to $5,000 are available for Odyssey Scholars who will participate in a University of Chicago Study Abroad program and who can demonstrate additional financial need through a separate application process. These awards are designed to assist with out-of-pocket expenses that might otherwise prohibit participation in Study Abroad. These scholarships are supported by the Goldman Sachs-Strongin Education Fund, a generous gift from a College alumni couple. Additionally, one Odyssey Scholar annually will be awarded the Lewis Fortner Study Abroad Scholarship Award. Applicants must be University of Chicago Odyssey Scholars who will participate in a University of Chicago Study Abroad program in the 2018-19 academic year, which is to say any or all of the following quarters: Autumn 2018, Winter 2019, Spring 2019. Deadline: Friday, February 9, 2018 for 2018-2019 programs.
